

Application for financial assistance

You can get help filling in the application at your NAV office.

- Fill in the application and attach documentation as far as possible.
- If you intentionally withhold or provide incorrect information, you may have to pay back the benefit.
- NAV can collect information about you from public registers that NAV is allowed to collect.
- You can hand in the application or send it by post to your NAV office. The three pages of the application are delivered without their own cover sheet.
